

Kathy began working at Wooden Cross in March 1995. She provides administrative and bookkeeping support to the Wooden Cross council and committees for ministries, activities and events. She has previously worked in an administrative capacity for Pacific Search Press, Seattle University and the Bellevue Philharmonic Orchestra. Kathy has been a constant through the changes in church leadership, and she is part of a great church staff. Her hobbies include biking, quilting, classic movies and traveling. Kathy and her husband have three grown children--Nicolas, Pascale and Philippe.
